

'Paris Jeyaraj' - good commercial entertainer

Direction: Johnson
Cast: Anika Soti, Mottai Rajendran, Santhanam, Sastika Rajendran
Lark Studio's Parris Jeyaraj is a comedy film written and directed by Johnson K. A good commercial entertainer from Santhanam and Johnson, and probably the second of many.
The movie revolves around Jeyaraj (Santhanam) who lives in North Chennai with his family and friends. He was the one who will be in all functions of area, colleges, bus and all as he does gaana song in every occasion. But his first love was broken up and he was vexed from that. Professor come Lawyer is the reason behind his break up.

Santhanam infuses a lot of energy to the film. Though a lot of trademark Santhanam jokes look like we've heard them before, most of them work because of the nature of the film. Parris Jeyaraj is a film that doesn't take itself seriously, and is also self aware about it. It operates in a care-free zone for a long time, and this results in Santhanam being in full form.

Among the supporting cast, Tiger Thangadurai, Motta Rajendran and KPY Vinoth chip in with useful performances. However it's Prudhvi Raj as Santhanam's father who nails his role, at times overshadowing even Santhanam with his well timed dialogues and expressions.

Arthur Wilson's camera isn't outstanding but offers what the film requires. When it comes to the music, Santhosh Narayanan scored music for this film. It is an engaging film, with a simple, linear story that doesn't leave you with much to think.

Overall, Parris Jeyaraj will definitely satisfy Santhanam fans, and you are guaranteed at least a few 'ROFL' moments.
